

Nurse N. Student, RN, BSN

1234 Square Circle ♦ Greenville, NC 27834
(123) 456-7891 ♦ studentn14@students.ecu.edu

CAREER OBJECTIVE

Seeking a challenging position as a Nurse Manager to use my comprehensive healthcare experience and training as well as strengths in interdisciplinary collaborations and relationship building to become an asset to the Vidant Medical Center team

EDUCATION

Master of Science Nursing ~ Nursing Leadership Concentration

East Carolina University

May 2015

Bachelor of Science in Nursing

University of North Carolina Greensboro

May 2004

EXPERIENCE

Charge Nurse, Radiation Oncology

Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center

April 2008-present

- Assist Nurse Manager with her duties when she is out of the clinic setting
- Facilitate nursing huddle every morning prior to start of clinic and participate in departmental huddle prior to start of day
- Coordinate the department's daily activities to ensure smooth flow of clinic
- Facilitate weekly meeting with two tech extenders and one nursing assistant
- Served as a preceptor for a new hire Registered Nurse this year
- Care for inpatient and outpatient oncology patient in radiation oncology setting
- Provide skin care and manage side effects of radiation therapy for adult and pediatric patients
- Educate patients on side effects of radiation therapy and guide them through entire treatment schedule
- Process MRI and CT patients for large imaging center
- Assist with Gamma Knife patients as needed
- Work with multiple physicians and one nurse practitioner in the outpatient clinic, processing consults, follow-ups and other outpatient visits

Director of Nursing

Brighton Gardens Assisted Living

November 2008-April 2009

- Managed Medication Technicians, Licensed Practical Nurses and Certified Nursing Assistants
- Cared for geriatric patient population and their families
- Provided continuing education for staff members

Staff Nurse, Pediatric Hematology/Oncology

Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center

May 2005- June 2007

- Administered chemotherapy treatment and monitored side effects
- Demonstrated ability to work with a team of doctors, nurses, nursing assistants, secretaries and auxiliary staff to provide optimum care for all patients
- Provided end of life care

- Coordinated plans of care for hospital stay and at discharge
- Taught families and patients about disease process, medications and care of patient at home
- Cared for central lines
- Administered blood products
- Acted in charge nurse role on weekly basis
- Acted as a preceptor for new nurses

Staff Nurse, Surgical Intensive Care

Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center

July 2004-April 2005

- Cared for post-operative patients, including renal transplants
- Provided end of life care
- Worked with dialysis patients, including managing PRISMA
- Educated families about equipment in the ICU, disease process, discharge information and provided emotional support to those families
- Managed the ventilated patient
- Administered IV drips
- Cared for many types of surgical and non-surgical wounds
- Provided care for central lines
- Administered blood products

SPECIAL PROJECTS

Shared governance within Radiation Oncology

Caring Practice Team member at Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center since January 2011

Currently involved in implementation of Epic EMR within Radiation Oncology

Served as Super User for new IV pump education with Radiation Oncology nurses

Assisted with training of RAD/ONC staff for 2012 Mosaiq software upgrade

AWARDS/RECOGNITIONS

Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center Nurse Excellence Award recipient May 2012

Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center Employee of the Month November 2011

Served as Nurse of the Day for NCNA in the NC General Assembly-May 2012

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

Sigma Theta Tau International Honors Society of Nursing Inductee October 2012

American Nurses Association (ANA)/North Carolina Nursing Association Member (NCNA)

- Served as a delegate for my local NCNA district at annual NCNA convention October 2012